Erik R Hamner

Candidate for the Judicial Vacancy

Friends and Colleagues who take the time to read this I thank you. My name is Erik Hamner and I was born at Moses Cone Hospital in Greensboro North Carolina in December of 1981. I lived in the Greensboro area until I was 14 and a half. I then moved New York State where I lived for 10 years. I graduated from Albany Law School in 2008 and I moved back down to the Greensboro area shortly afterwards. After passing the North Carolina Bar I hung my own shingle and I have been practicing law here in Guilford County as a Solo Practitioner for 10 years now. Almost immediately after starting my practice I got onto the court appointed lists for misdemeanors and child support defense and I am still on those lists. I have since been added to the low level felonies list and the DWI list when it was split off from the misdemeanor list. I mostly do criminal defense work but I also do some civil work including child support defense and some civil litigation work mostly revolving around breach of contract and landlord tenant issues. I have also handled cases of various natures in some of our neighboring counties over the last 10 years including Alamance, Forsythe, Randolph, Davidson, Orange and Durham. I think I would make a fine District Court Judge. I hope you agree and that I can count on your vote on October 23. Again thank you.
